

ROLE OF PARENTS

BSA Troop 101

Rochester Hills, Michigan

Parents who are new to the troop struggle to understand how they can help. This document outlines some of the things a parent can do to support Troop 101. The list is not exhaustive. There are more things you can do. If you think of things that should be added to this list, send them to the Webmaster.

- Be involved
- Come to troop meetings
- Attend the Parent Committee Meetings (first meeting each month)
- Be part of the decisions that set the direction for the troop
- Ask questions
- Learn about scouting
- Go on campouts
- Go to summer camp
- Be a driver for campouts and other troop activities
- Participate on a Board of Review
- Participate on an Eagle Board of Review
- Review and approve Eagle Scout Projects
- Help out on Eagle Scout Projects
- Become a Merit Badge Counselor
- Become a troop leader
- Make a difference
- Make Troop 101 better